Date/ Day: 21.04.2025 (Monday)

Timing: 8.30 a.m. to 9.00 a.m.

Class Strength: 41

Topic: “How School Cultivates Emotional Maturity Among Students - Three ways”

MASTERS OF CEREMONY: 1. K. DHIYA 2. MADHUMITHA S.

The students of class VIII-D hosted their Class Assembly on the topic “How School cultivates Emotional Maturity among Students – Three ways” on 21st April 2025 (Monday) in School Assembly Ground between 8:30 a.m. and 9:00 a.m.

All the students worked collaboratively and were excited to be on the stage.

A beautiful invite carrying the details of the theme, agenda and inspiring quotes was made by a team of students. They also prepared badges designed by them. Emoji Badges were distributed to add significance to their topic.

The three ways chosen by the students, through which Emotional Maturity cultivated by School, are Self Awareness, Conflict Resolution and Active Listening.

The Assembly commenced with an invocation to the Almighty followed by a formal Welcome Address. Later, the world popular and revered Thirukkural on emotional attainment was recited.

The theme of the Assembly was presented through the

- Role Play based on the Astronaut Sunita Williams
- Emotional Maturity – An Ode in Tamil
- Barrier of Self-Awareness – Mime
- Inside Out @ D.A.V. – Skit
- Dance for the Tune – A Dance Show

“Inside Out @ D.A.V.” provided a treat for the eyes. The skit with its witty actions and emoticons were enjoyed by the audience. The skit conveyed how DAVians are inculcated with confidence.

Barrier of Self-Awareness – Mime was the cynosure of all eyes as it carried the music of different emotions and conveyed a vibrant message on the ill effects of mobile phone usage and how it is hindering the self-awareness.

Towards closure, students’ contributions and involvement were recognised and appreciated through credits.

The short and crisp assembly was concluded by adding insights on Arya Samaj by Ms. Hema Sarda.

The programmes were appreciated by our beloved Principal Madam Ms. Sujatha M. Parents appreciated the efforts taken by the School Management in cultivating the Life Skill in students through Class Assemblies and lauded the initiatives taken to instil values through creative designing of the school building and walls.

Towards the end, the class choir recited Shanti Paat which was then followed by National Anthem.

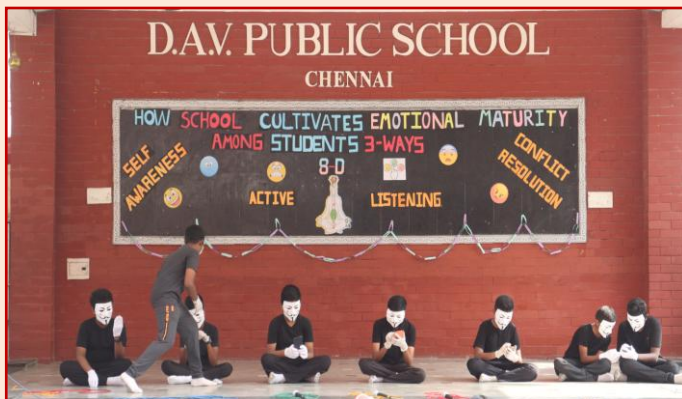

All the students thanked our Principal Madam for the opportunity given to showcase their talents on stage.
