Class Teacher: Ms. Hema Sarda

Date / Day: 16.04.2025 (Wednesday)

Timing: 8.30 a.m. to 9.00 a.m.

Class Strength: 36

Topic: “How School Promotes Thinking Skills Among Students – Beyond Textbook – Three Ways”

The Morning Assembly was presented by the students of class VIII - B under the guidance of their class teacher, Mrs. Hema Sarda. The Theme of the programme was “How School Promotes Thinking Skills among Students by Going beyond Textbooks in three ways.”

The Class Assembly hosted by Pranav S and Jenesha V exhibited a seamless performance. The assembly commenced with the chanting of the DAV Gaan and the Gayatri Mantra, invoking the blessings of the Lord Almighty. A captivating ‘Doha’ recitation by the students highlighted moral values, such as calmness and positive thinking, a focused mindset, and an attitude of kindness.

An informative explanation of different types of thinking skills promoted in our school was exhibited by 21 students to cultivate the knowledge of thinking skills among the audience and the various steps taken by our school towards holistic development of the Students.

This was followed by an engaging and yet attractive ‘Fusion Fest’, where students exhibited their talents innovatively and creatively. Seven students performed a semi classical dance with ‘Rock Beats’ and 6 students displayed their martial arts skills, including silambam and karate. The programme was a great success and infused energy among the audience.

The Assembly concluded with the rendition of a soulful song by our class choir and the team was guided by our Music teacher Mr. Srishant Kumar Patnaik, demonstrating the skills of seeking answers and improving communication among the society.

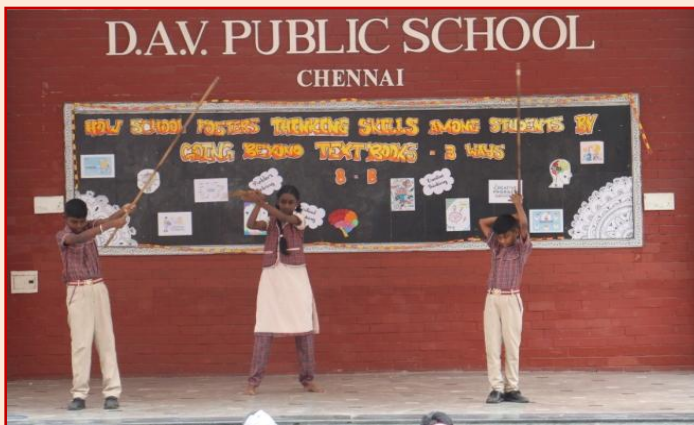

Overall, the Assembly was informative, engaging, and inspiring, leaving a lasting impact on the students. The Assembly came to a halt with the ‘National Anthem’, followed by Shanti Paat.
