Topic: “How School Promotes Social Skills Among Students – Teamwork – Three Ways”

Report on the delightful Class Assembly of VIII - C on 17th of April 2025 (Thursday). It was a remarkable event where the students showcased their talents and spread awareness on the importance of ‘Teamwork’ through Social Skills throughout the school.

The theme for our Class Assembly was “How School Promotes Social Skills Among Students”. This theme allowed us to explore various aspects of our curriculum, including history and creative arts. Throughout the Assembly, the motive was to Educate, Entertain and Inspire the audience. The theme of the Assembly highlighted the three ways in which the school promotes Teamwork among students.

The programme commenced with the recital of Gayathri Mantra, followed by “Welcome Flash”.

The programme mesmerized the audience with “Magical Melody on Teamwork” – The song stood as an example of Teamwork which served as an integral part of collaboration. The song conveyed the significance of cooperation and unity, which aligned well with the theme ‘Teamwork’. The tune was motivational, energetic and perfect to enlighten one’s spirit.

“Team Titans” – An activity using ball was performed by the students which promoted Collaboration, Communication and Teamwork among the students.

“The Classroom Capers” – A role play was staged by the students on ‘Teamwork’ which helped the students to build Self Confidence and Communication skills. The students reflected on various Celebrations, Hindustan Scouts and Guides movement, Club Activities and numerous Competitions conducted in our school.

“Flow Fusion” – The students showcased their exceptional skills in the form of graceful dance performances. The dance was highly energetic and well coordinated to captivate the attention of the audience.

Finally, the Supervisory Head Ms. Uma Ma’am gave her feedback on the programme. The overall exhibition of the talents and their splendid performance were applauded.

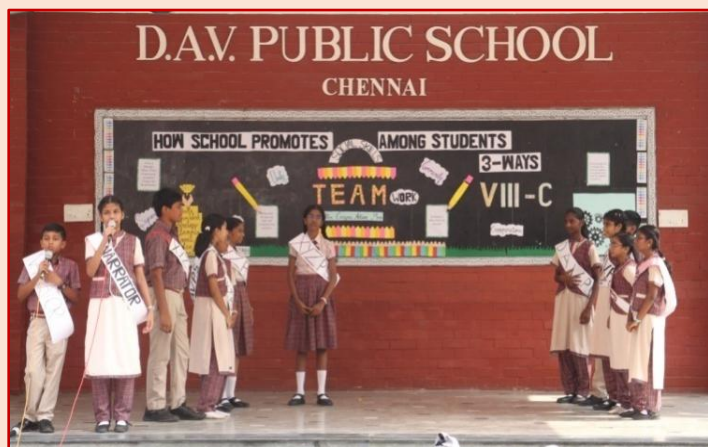

The Assembly had drawn to a close with “The National Anthem” followed by Shanti Paat.
